

Christina K. Zorn, J.D.

University of Wisconsin; Creighton University School of Law
Board member since 2019

Ms. Zorn began her service as vice chair of Administration, Mayo Clinic, and chief administrative officer of Mayo Clinic in Florida in 2015. She provides management and administrative operating direction including accountability for quality, safety, service and financial performance for Mayo Clinic in Florida. Ms. Zorn also ensures the alignment and development of resources to achieve Mayo Clinic goals for practice, education and research.

A Mayo Clinic staff member since 2002, Ms. Zorn began her career as a legal counsel. In 2009, she was named chair of the Florida division of Mayo Clinic's Legal Department. She is the secretary of the Executive Operations Team of the Florida campus, and serves on the Enterprise Management Team of Mayo Clinic.

Ms. Zorn earned her bachelor's degree in Zoology from the University of Wisconsin and received her Juris Doctor degree from Creighton University School of Law. Prior to joining Mayo Clinic, Ms. Zorn practiced with the law firm Foley & Lardner, focusing on health care and transactional law. She is a member of the American Association of Corporate Counsel and the American Health Lawyers Association.

