Clinical Physician Update

Patient Care

Expert answers about inflammation rare pipe.

Tina J. Heiken, M.D., a surgical oncologist at Mayo Clinic Comprehensive Cancer Center in Rochester, Minnesota, discusses the current state of metastatic care and advancements in the field that are rapidly being translated into the clinic.

Mayo Clinic investigators find cryoablation useful for abdominal wall endometriosis

A multidisciplinary research team at Mayo Clinic found that cryoablation has multiple advantages for patients with abdominal wall endometriosis compared with surgery.

Managing pain after pectus excavatum surgery

Mayo Clinic Children’s Center uses a multidisciplinary approach to manage post pectus excavatum surgery typically leading to decreased use of pain medications, improved pain scores and shorter hospital stays.

Research

See all Family Medicine and General Internal Medicine Clinical Trials at Mayo Clinic

Education

Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development offers live courses, livestreaming courses, online continuing medical education (CME) courses and podcasts to meet your CME needs.

Mayo Clinic Radiation Oncology: Current Practice and Future Direction 2024

Jan. 8-12, 2024

Fairmont Kea Lani, Maui, Hawaii

This course explores contemporary cancer treatment through a balanced and multidisciplinary approach. The format incorporates didactic lectures, panel discussions and poster sessions to provide an engaging and informative learning experience.

Register Now

Integrated Behavioral Health in Primary Care 2024 — Approaches that Work

Jan. 19-20, 2024

Phoenix and Livestream

The 2024 Integrated Behavioral Health (IBH) conference focuses on two themes: basics of developing and running an integrated behavioral health program and low-intensity, high-impact interventions in primary care.

Register Now